

SEPTEMBER 2014

St. Clair Beekeepers Association

Bee Buzz

Monthly Newsletter of the St. Clair Beekeepers Association

Special points of interest:

- Election time
- Check bees food stores. Need to feed?
- World's shortest newsletter?
- More next month!

Monthly SCBA Meeting — September

Sunday September 28th at 2:00 pm

We will meet at Hemmingways Zen Garden

St Clair County Farm Bureau Building

123 East 1st Street

O'Fallon, Illinois

Their phone is 618-632-6008. We will journey out to see bees at the community garden on the corner of East State and North Smiley. Bring a potluck item to share and lots of great beekeeping questions

Apologies

Time has slipped away all too quickly for this newsletter. I must apologize but I do want to at least get a notice out to our members about the upcoming meeting.

Last minute emails are fine, however there are a few members that have only postal mail, thus this short note.

I hope your bees are doing well, bringing in some fall nectar. Make sure you do your mite treatments now, because if you don't knock down their population before winter, the mites will probably overwhelm your bees.

Sincerely,

Katrina

P S If you've been waiting for the right time to send newsletter submissions, I think now is a great time!